and
Mr. Saul Pulver

STAT

Dear Mr. Pulver:

The White House has referred to the Director of Central Intelligence your letter of 7 October 1960 regarding briefings given to the Presidential candidates in 1956 by the Central Intelligence Agency.

In 1956 Governor Stevenson was briefed by the Central Intelligence Agency at the direction of President Eisenhower.

These briefings are classified and no information other than the fact that such briefings were held is made public.

Sincerely,

/s/
Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
